

PRIMARY METHODOLOGIES

- Interviews with digital-native audiences to understand their media habits, perceptions, and engagement with storytelling in family settings.
- Interviews with storytellers and community members to explore existing storytelling practices and variations.
- Game prototyping informed by insights from interviews and analysis.
- Playtesting sessions to evaluate player engagement, cultural resonance, and perception shifts.